THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK – Colossians 3 verse 12

“As God’s chosen ones, holy and beloved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, meekness and patience.”

COMMENT:

It is interesting to think of ourselves as God’s chosen ones. To me, that means when the Holy Spirit convicted us of our need to turn to God for salvation, that was the beginning of a process, initiated by God, not ourselves. We are a work in progress so to speak, working to become the kind of people God would have us be, reborn in his image.

Chosen for what, we may ask. Surely to bring praise and glory to God whose servants and ambassadors we are. We should strive to be holy, i.e. Unworldly, set apart for God’s purposes. Putting it another way, we are called to be in the world for the amount of good we can do, but not OF the world.

In order to achieve the purposes for which God calls us, we need to put on or “clothe ourselves with” compassion, kindness, humility, meekness and patience. Paul, the author of this letter to the church in Colossae, uses the analogy of clothing ourselves with right living. We recall his telling his readers to “put on the whole armour of God.” Allied to this he says elsewhere “put off” as in discarding garments, maliciousness, resentment, bad language and so on.

These ideas of compassion, kindness and so on, are some of the identifying characteristics of the Christian, for which we strive, as we seek to live the life of faith, following the example of self giving which Christ set us. With God’s help we CAN be properly clothed and ready for the challenges which face us, both personally, and in our dealings with others. Every blessing, John.
